1. The draft 2011-2012 calendar was distributed for cabinet members to look at. The draft is still being discussed between BOCES and district personnel.
2. This summer John will be looking at a possible new formula to calculate seniority. Seniority may be analyzed as 1 day paid equals 1 day of seniority.

3. A couple of bargaining units still have to vote on the wage freeze. Those in contract negotiations are looking for concessions before they vote. All remaining units will vote within the next couple of weeks.
4. John will be working with Dr. Brown this summer on the APPR process. There will be some changes. John is hoping to have the procedures worked out by the time of contract negotiations.
5. John shared communications he received commending our teachers on the wage freeze vote.
6. At our April meeting we will have officer nominations from the floor. We will vote at the May meeting.

VI. Vice Presidents Reports-
-Grievances, Teaching Center, Superintendents Liaison, EDC, other...

Sue Giannini reported:

1. The last Teaching Center meeting was cancelled due to a snow day. It has been rescheduled for next Monday.
2. John is organizing a Superintendent's Liaison Meeting.

VII. Building Leader Reports (including shared decision making Committee Nominations)

1. Questions were asked regarding course work pay raises, department chairs having a study hall duty due to scheduling, interaction time at the middle schools, coaching questions and contract language, and personal day usage.

VIII. Unfinished Business

1. Peg Bailey is organizing a Jeans Day for the American Heart Association on Friday, March 18, 2011.
